We will gladly program for your own special wishes.

The music program can be individually customized to your wishes. The selections can be presented between the menu courses or as a block.

Other themes may also be selected in addition to the ones listed above - for example, Delicacies from 1001 Nights, Asian Buffet, Mozart Diner ...

La Triviata – let yourself be operawhelled!

Experience live, how an opera is produced and how lively opera can be. A fun and unique musical experience at the highest level!

Three singers and a pianist create every evening completely new.

The soloists follow the direction from the audience and compose, write, sing and play spontaneously arias, ensembles and choruses or entire operas which are comical, sad or strange, but guaranteed never boring, predictable or planned.

Those who once have experienced three singers balancing the musical tightropes of spontaneously composing a revenge quartet, which in text and music in the moment of singing is created and masterfully performed, will be a fan for life of the daring challenge of Impro-Opera!

A little Laugh Music

Join us on the balancing act between philharmonic un-seriousness and virtuosic silliness.

The two protagonists call on a fun-loving, humorous and ageless public without any previous musical knowledge to help them achieve their goal.

They are dependent on spontaneous applause to master the difficult journey between high standards and successful performance.

Operetta Magic

...is an exclusive, musical menu of the most beautiful and famous melodies from the magical world of the operetta.

The Genre of "light music" is well known to this ensemble of two singers a violinist and a pianist.
The Moderation is delivered by the man at the piano.

Musical Future

...is a lively evening with thoroughly sensual moments. The entire bandwidth of musicals is performed, from classical to modern hits.

George Gerswhin, Cole Porter, Frederick Loewe, Leonard Bernstein, Stephen Sondheim, Andrew Lloyd-Webber – The giants of the musical genre meet today's generation of young musical composers.

Cellikatessen

Are a collection of original virtuosic arrangements of famous masterpieces of classical music, popular Evergreens as well as international street songs, that everyone knows, but in this form have never been heard before.

The two cellists and the pianist, who functions as the moderator and arranger, insure with their performance of good mood music for a varied journey through the Hit Parade of the Universe from „a little night music“ to „In the mood“.

Feliz Navidad – Merry Christmas

Enjoy the melodies of Christmas from around the world!

From atmospheric songs of the north, through the rhythmic sounds of the southern regions to the Latin-american songs we offer you a diversified program for the Christmas season.

Venture with our singers and instrumentalists on a Christmas trip around the world!

You can book us!

Whether it is a singer with a piano accompaniment or an entire evening of opera with audience participation, we organize everything around your cultural event.

The Team

Die NetzWerkstatt

Die NetzWerkstatt was founded in 2002 as a regional internet agency. It withstood an industry and business crisis and has expanded its web and print business to all of Europe.

There are many reasons for this success: The highest industry competence, consistent product quality with unified standards, concepts of modular structure, adaptation to the market with new or progressively developed solutions, reasonable pricing and last but not least, a creative staff that are constantly learning new techniques and simply have a lot of fun in their occupation. They have several awards as proof of their professional abilities.

The advantage for the customer is clear: Consistent and target marketed external representation in web and print media alltogether under one roof

Comedy Experts

The Comedy Experts are committed to make comedy more popular throughout the entire Republic. In 2010 they developed for that purpose diversified unique comedy formats which include the Comedy Buffet and the Comedy Clinic, which have since its creation enjoyed great success.

The Comedy Experts have gathered a large number of artists from all over Germany. Therefore, the group has a large choice of artists from which to choose and can guarantee an ever changing program.

But, the Comedy Experts are not only concept developers and artist representatives – they produce events such as Open-Air and Indoor events on a large scale. The Easter Weekend 2011 was held at the Baltic Sea Resort Scharbeutz "Magic-Ocean" Open-Air with tens of thousands in attendance.

The North German Comedy-Prize "The Golden Laughing Seagull" was held in 2011 for the third time in a row in cooperation with the Hansapark, northern Germany's largest amusement park.

Nadine Wagner

...studied Business Management at the Christian Albrechts University in Kiel, Germany.

Parallel to her business studies she completed private study in Trumpet and started her career as an Assistant Director in the Kiel Opera House.

After completing her studies she worked as Chief Disponent of the Nordharzer Städtebundtheater and was engaged at the Nationaltheater Mannheim. In 2005 she established her own company in the Artist and Event Management sector. She was Manager and largely responsible for the creation and cultivation of the Masterclasses and Competition of the Opera Schloss Laubach and now is responsible for the International Opera Academy Rhein-Main.

As a result of this great success and years of working with highly talented opera singers, she was asked to organize additional concert projects with hotels and companies. Events such as the Mozart Dinner, Venetian Opera Night and Spanish Nights were developed and produced for large renowned venues. These venues include the Munich Residenz, Arabella Sheraton Munich, Dolce

Bad Nauheim, Kempinski Frankfurt. In addition, she organized Dine and Opera Events in smaller exclusive venues and has worked with outstanding Master Chefs, such as Harald Wohfahrt.
